Missing Parts Response

Sir:

Attached hereto is a response to a Missing Parts Letter dated 05/12/2004 in connection with the above identified application.

Please take notice the letter may have been issued in error. The letter alleges that the fees were missing in the application. However, review of the application as filed clearly indicates that fees were submitted in accordance with the rules.

Specifically, 1) a Utility Transmittal Letter indicates that a Fee Transmittal Letter is included as part of the application; 2) A Fee Transmittal Letter indicates Small Entity Status and Total Amount of Payment as $385 – the correct amount for a new patent application. The checkbox associated with Deposit Account is properly checked as required. The data relating to the Deposit Account 500296 and Page Lohr Associates is presented without error. The fee calculation was executed without error. The form appears complete and proper.; 3) A separate and independent general 'Deposit Account Authorization' has been additionally executed and presented with the application to authorize all fees in the application to be charged against the deposit account.

Accordingly, it is not understood why the Office should issue a Notice of Fees being Due. Applicant requests reconsideration and clarification of the apparent defect in issue of Notice of Missing Parts.

To expedite resolution, a replacement general authorization and replacement Fee Transmittal Sheet are included with this response letter so that fees may be charged against our deposit account in the event that the original Fee Transmittal Form was somehow defective. In addition, I have enclosed a check in the amount of $450 which includes surcharge fees ($65) for late oath or declaration in case the Missing Parts letter is found to be properly issued. Commissioner is only authorized to use this check in the event of such determination – please do not cash the check if the deposit account was properly debited.

If the matter is not fully resolved by this response, then please contact me at once so that I might provide remedy without further delay.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph E. Page
